

Privacy And Policy

- We use cookies to identify new and returning users for our analytics purposes
- We will not by any means, give out any of our clients personal information to outside users such as advertisement agency, insurance call center, etc.
- What the client has placed on our website, makes it public to the world except for their sensitive information such as ID Number and physical address (we only show Province and city)
- We are not eligible for the client or user safety while they are being called for a service or providing a service. It is the users, clients, or seekers own responsibility to ensure their safety all the time.
- We will give out any information to the police if they have a warrant to search that is signed by a court judge.